

WORKERS' COMPENSATION EMPLOYEE INFORMATION

TO ALL EMPLOYEES:

The Workers' Compensation Law in Pennsylvania provides wage loss and medical benefits to employees who cannot work, or who need medical care, because of a work-related injury.

Benefits are required to be paid by your employer when self-insured, or through insurance provided by your employer. Your employer is required to post the name of the company responsible for paying workers' compensation benefits at its primary place of business and at its sites of employment in a prominent and easily accessible place, including, without limitation, areas used for treatment of injured employees for the administration of first aid.

- You should report immediately any injury or work-related illness to your employer.
- Your benefits could be delayed or denied if you do not notify your employer immediately.
- If your claim is denied by your employer, you have the right to request a hearing before a Workers' compensation judge.

The Bureau of Workers' Compensation cannot provide legal advice. However, you may contact the Bureau of Workers' Compensation for additional information at:
